“ My heart goes out to Bella, Tristan, and all of Charm's family and friends. As one of Bella's Girls on the Run coaches, I knew Charm only superficially through conversations after practice. Yet, it was clear that she loved her kids dearly and did all she could to raise them to be strong, confident, and kind. May she rest in peace, and may her children and family eventually find comfort in her memory. Prayers for all of you.

“ My deepest sympathy to Carly and her family on the loss of Charm. She was cool person to work with. I worked with her at Robert E. Rose and some at ResCare. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her. She was a very wise person and knew a lot; just wished I had listened to her about something we talked about. RIP my girl and watch down on all that knew you and loved you.

“ We didn't know each other long, but within the cheer season, you displayed the beautiful gift you were to this world. You were at every practice and every game. We chatted each time (your sense of humor was always a trip!) and you were always finding ways to help not just Bella, but the rest of the She Wolves. You were very involved in what was happening, always asking me what Bella could do at home to improve her tumbling, sending videos of new skills she was trying. I always doubted my coaching abilities until my mother told me she overheard you say "Coach Carlene is AWESOME." Your words, involvement, dedication, and kindness will stick with me forever. You are a true example of what it means to be not just an amazing person, but a phenomenal mother who put her children first. You raised a fighter, and I pray Bella keeps that warrior within her which you instilled in her. I promise to be there for her not just as a coach, but as a friend. God bless your resting soul and your loved ones. You will be greatly missed. I'm so blessed I got to know you. I cannot believe this has happened so quickly and unexpectedly, and it was difficult to find the right words, but God's got this and I know He's got you. Rest in peace, Miss Charm. Love always.

“ My sweet Charm. I remember when they brought you home from the hospital and we lived on Jackson Ave. I loved you so much the first time I saw you. Then we grew to be like sisters. Time and events drifted us apart, but we were still close at heart. I will love you always and miss you forever. Please continue to shine your light over us and dance in the heavens pretty girl.
