“ I've had the pleasure of knowing Derrick Frink for the past 11 years and I have to say he was a friend a friend would love to have. He was always optimistic with a smile on his face. I wish I had those characteristics. He had a big heart, always willing to help out anyone in need without expecting anything in return. A very hard worker, always volunteering to work weekends, stay late or work a shift for anyone. Derrick just did it out of kindness, that's the type of person he was.

I remember a ride home on the pike one evening and a woman had a flat tire, Derrick said let's stop, we should help, and we did.

He was a very good listener and a very good friend. In my eyes he was as strong as the derrick oil rig, nothing stopped him. He pushed on through good and bad, no matter what came his way he stood strong with his chin up.

Even though his heart was not working well on the inside, it was 100 percent on the outside.

We have truly lost an all around great guy, and friend.

You will be deeply missed Derrick.
