“ Just wanted to send my prayers to the Cook family for their lost. Your children are not suppose to go before you; I know that only too well. Day by day, step by step, tear by tear and it still doesn't get any easier. May Gods love for all his children comfort you during these times.

“ I always smile and remember the happy, fun times when you were young and spent the summers with us. You and Darrell were more like brothers to Scott and Staci, than cousins during that time. Time and distance separated us all, and I'll always feel sadness for the life that was cut short and the future that could have been. Rest so peacefully Kenny. Love, Aunt Jodi

“ All I keep thinking about is Kenny and Darrell being that dynamic duo with Darrell on the pitcher's mound and Kenny behind the plate. They were unstoppable. I suppose the reason I keep seeing that image of those two is because I hope they have found each other beyond the stars and are playing an eternal game of baseball and laughing together the way they always did. I love you Kenny and just wish I had done more.
