Her father and grandparents; Ray and Betty Miller, George and Audrey McFarland preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her aunt, April Adams, and uncles, Ricky McFarland (Anna) and Mike McFarland. Despite Amy's many challenges with her health and disabilities, she always focused on her abilities and not her disabilities. Amy was involved in numerous fundraisers including Coat Drives, Food Drives; Blanket Drives, community events, etc. During COVID, Amy purchased all the supplies she needed to make necklaces, bracelets, and keychains and donated them to the frontline employees at Winchester Medical Center. She also donated to the Winchester SPCA to raise money for the homeless animals.

Amy loved pageants and won numerous awards at the local, state, and national levels including "National High Point Supreme Woman," "National Overall Talent," "National Overall Achievement," "Ms. Photogenic," "Director's Choice," "Most Successful Woman," "Lifetime Achievement," and numerous other "Inspiration Awards." In 2010, She and her mother also had the honor of being invited to the White House by former President Barack Obama and First Lady, Michelle Obama for their fierce advocacy efforts during the General Assembly each year to keep the elderly and disabled in their communities and out of nursing homes and institutions. Amy also had the privilege of signing (American Sign Language) "The National Anthem" while Sergeant Vicky Golding sang the anthem during Military Appreciation Week at a Redskins/Eagles game in 2012. The Winchester Star wrote numerous articles about Amy's achievements and inspiration to others. She was also invited on Cable Talk with Barry Lee Bowser several times to share her amazing life story.

Amy lived life to the fullest and loved concerts, cruises, amusement parks, going to the beach, and being with her family and friends. She never met a stranger and spread love and kindness to everyone she met. Everyone who had the privilege of knowing Amy was blessed by her because of her cheerful, positive attitude; amazing sense of humor; and her generous spirit. She loved children and animals, and always wanted to have an “Amy’s Home” for homeless animals. Her family and friends are determined to make this happen in Amy’s memory. Amy was so proud when her precious dog, Bailey Rain, won the Winchester SPCA Calendar Contest, and her picture is featured next month in August. Amy was a bright light here on earth and is now shining her light in Heaven.

“ Years ago when my daughter and Amy were still in high school, they both participated in several fashion shows at Apple Blossom Mall. My daughter had the privilege of walking down the runway with Amy many times. It was always a highlight for my daughter. I let my daughter know of Amy’s passing (my daughter lives in England now) and she was so very sad to hear the news but memories of Amy brought a smile to her face. Rest well sweet Amy.

“ I met Amy and her Mom back when Amy was a teenager, working out at the rehab pool at Cork Street, and even after I moved on from my lifeguard days, I saw her and her Mom out and about, mostly at her post at Walmart greeting everyone. I am so sorry to read of her passing, Amy was the epitome of 'never met a stranger'!!!! So outgoing, so friendly, her light shines so bright!!! (As does her Mom's) My heart goes out to Amy's family, I know this is a big, big loss ❤️❤️

“*Mary, my sincerest condolences on your loss and for the loss of Amy's extended family and friends. I was fortunate enough to meet and work with Amy at Walmart. Amy's friendliness, caring, and loving ways reached hundreds of people walking through the doors of Walmart. I know she has impacted my life in many ways. The precious memories I have of Amy, I will always cherish. From Amy's beautiful smile, her funny antics, and her talkative ways, she had a presence about her that always warmed your heart and soul. Amy was truly a gift from God, and those who knew her were better because of having known her. Our world has become less bright without Amy here. However, I believe that one day, we will all be reunited in God's beautiful kingdom. Rest easy, beautiful, and rejoice in the arms of our Savior. Until we meet again~
Mary, my thoughts and prayers are with you.*
