

Ann Padgette Jones

June 19, 1933 - October 7, 2022

Ann Padgette Jones, 89, of Winchester, VA, and formerly of Kensington, MD, died Friday, October 7, 2022, at her residence.

She was born June 19, 1933, in Jackson, TN, the daughter of Malcolm Lee Padgette, Sr., and Clara Cochran Padgette. She was married to the Rev. Donald D.M. Jones for 17 very happy years. He predeceased her in 2019.

Ann worked for the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, MD, for 30 years, and in private industry for several years before that. She retired in 1997 from her position as secretary/administrative assistant to the Deputy Director of NIH's Office of Extramural Research. She was honored with an NIH Merit Award in 1992.

Ann loved gardening, traveling, painting, classic country music, good food, and spending time with family and friends, including the family's many dogs. She was a member of National Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C., and First Presbyterian Church in Winchester.

She is survived by her nieces Carla Peters Barnes (Paul), Susan Peters Kendall (Chris), Elizabeth Padgette Jenkins (Mike), Virginia Padgette; great-niece Alice C. Forehand, great-nephews James R. Kendall and Christopher Jenkins; stepchildren Cheryl Jones (Felix Federowicz) and Stuart McKendree

Jones (Ruth); step-grandchildren Stephanie Jones and Stuart Jones, Jr.

She also leaves behind many loving friends as well as the caring staff of Westminster-Canterbury-Shenandoah Valley.

Ann was predeceased by her brother Malcolm Lee Padgette, Jr., sister Martha Padgette Peters, brother-in-law Fred A. Peters, and nephew F. Randolph (Randy) Peters.

Interment will be private in Rock Creek Cemetery in Washington, D.C.

A memorial service will be 2:00 pm Jan. 7, 2023, at Westminster-Canterbury.

Memorial contributions may be made to the SVWC Foundation. (<https://www.svwc.org/s/foundation>)
