“ My heart grieves with thus amazing family! I loded hanging out on the porch, apple blossom time, listening to kim listen to al green and me and ashley talking about boys and friends and school....always loved bath and body works, we had so many fun times so many laughs and life is just too short for some of the greatest people but maybe heaven needed her more. Praying heavy over this entire family, her beautiful children and the ones in her life that she loved and the ones that loved her and always will.
