“ Mike, my big brother, who always cared, always looked out for me. I miss you, your face and all your quick comments and especially those Donald Duck voices. You made growing up such an adventure and a house full of girls who drove you crazy. I have so many memories and will keep them close to heart and in my mind forever. I loved being a "child groupie" for your bands...play Batman just one more time. The summers at the beach and spent with cousins and Grandma Sale adventures. Wow, the memories just go on and on. When I married my high school sweetheart, you were there, when my children were born...and then your children were born, we related so many things together. And then, I began having grandchildren and then with such excitement, your granddaughter arrived and you understood that amazing love. We will be sure Piper (PJ) knows her Poppy, we will tell her things about you. And she will see in her dad, Ben and Aunt Eliza, ALL the things you taught them and all the love you shared with them and how proud you are of each of them.

Enjoy your hang time with Jesus, until we get there. Catch up with our dad, Don, Aunt Catherine, Jackie, Ronnie and all the others who we shared so much with. I love you and will miss you.
