

Christel Eva Doerwaldt

November 30, 1932 - December 5, 2018

Christel Eva Doerwaldt, 86, of Winchester died Wednesday, December 5, 2018 in Envoy of Winchester. If there ever was a person in our community that was larger than life, it was our Omi.

She was born November 30, 1932, in Germany, the daughter of Franz and Maria Kaulitzky.

She was married to Doctor Hartmut Doerwaldt. Dr. Doerwaldt preceded her in death. She remarried Dr. Ray Collins, of Front Royal, and he too preceded her in death.

She was a member of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church.

She is survived by her children, Christiane E. Sorel and her husband Eliot of Washington D.C., Werner F. Doerwaldt and his wife Peggy of Winchester, and Dr. Hartmut Doerwaldt of Connecticut; grandchildren, Marc Sorel, Dr. Marie-Adele Sorel Kress and her husband, Jeremy, Celeste O'Brien and her husband Quinton, Hannah Alleman and her husband Carter, Christa, Skylar, Max, Hartmut, Ian, and Alex Doerwaldt; and great-grandchildren, Elias and Davina Kress.

A wake will be held December 29th, from 2 to 5 p.m. in Werner and Peggy Doerwaldt's home at 126 Peyton Street, Winchester, Virginia.

Memorials may be made to the Susan G. Komen Foundation at: www.komen.org or the American Cancer Society at www.cancer.org

“ To Werner and Peggy -- and all the Doerwaldt children -- I am so sorry to hear of the death of your mother. She was always nice, fun, smart and pretty. I wasn't around her very much but when I was, she was always great. Love, Susan Howard
