sorry about your loss - Jackie was a friend to everyone - didn't matter what color you were - everyone - he was our neighbor -though this year was a very difficult time for us we wasn't able to talk as much as we should have but we always prayed for him everyday. God bless and praying for your family ❤️

“ Clarence will always be remembered because of the daughter we share every time I look at her I see him in her and some of his traits - the love of talking and getting to know people , joking and cutting up , laughing and very hard working . And his love for his family . R.i.p. Clarence (Jackie) Franklin Jr.
