“ Donna and family My heart goes out to you all. Boo was an amazing man. I think of how helpful he always has been to anyone who needed it. I pray for your peace of mind that he is now free of this world and sitting by God. My thoughts are with you all.

“ Everyone at the Winchester airport knew him as Bo. He was always happy and smiling. He loved his wife and golfing. He was always ready to listen to a story or laugh about politics. It makes me sad that I never got to see him in his, self-described, crazy golf pants. I will miss Bo very much. God forgives all with the blood of Jesus.
