

Donna Dean Crigler

February 25, 1926 - May 20, 2014

Donna Dean Crigler passed away on Tuesday, May 20 at Winchester Medical Center.

She is survived by 3 sons; Donald F. & spouse Gail Crigler of Stephens City, VA; Dennis L. & spouse Kristy Crigler of Springfield, VA; and David L. spouse Beth Crigler of Moon, VA. She is also survived by 8 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

She was originally from Ashland, KY and married to William R. Crigler. Always a free spirit she lived in Springfield Va., Santa Cruz, CA, Greenup Ky. Ashland, KY and Gloucester, VA. In Gloucester, VA she lived at Daffodil Gardens senior residences from 2001 till 2012, where she started a community garden that is still tended by the current residents. The garden was dedicated in her honor in 2013.

She Owned and operated the Art Patch Shop In Springfield Va. and started the Whistle Stop Pottery in Greenup Ky.

A short memorial service in her memory will be held at Daffodil Gardens on Saturday, May 31st at 2 pm in the garden. Memorial contributions may be made to The Gloucester and Mathews Humane Society.

(As submitted by the family)

Tribute Wall

JY

“ Donna was my mom's good friend while we lived in Gloucester. She had a wonderful collection of art that she did. Still remember the little bird that whisled when you blew into it.

---

Jennifer Yarbrough - October 21, 2017 at 01:46 PM

HK

“ I loved Donna! One year I brought Donna with me to a dinner given by a bank I worked at. We danced a line dance with everyone after getting all dolled up. My co-workers asked me if she was my mom... we both smiled and said if only!

---

Henrietta R Knight - October 21, 2017 at 02:52 AM