

Donna Hope Hershman

February 27, 1965 - October 15, 2018

Donna Hope Williams Hershman, 53, of Winchester, died Monday, October 15, 2018 at her residence.

She was born February 27, 1965 in Loudoun County, VA, the daughter of Donald Edward and Virginia Conover Williams.

Donna was a Shenandoah University graduate where she served as an ADA compliance advisor to the dean.

She had was an independent living counselor; a founder of KAI; and the national firefighter poster child for MDA for three years. She was also the former owner of The Hope Chest Boutique.

She was a member of Christadelphian Fellowship.

Surviving are her mother, Virginia F. McInturff and her father, John Calvin McInturff, Sr. both of Winchester; two brothers, Jamie Stephen McInturff and John Calvin McInturff, Jr. and his wife Victoria; her paternal grandparents, Calvin and Norma McInturff and a number of loving cousins, nieces and nephews.

A brother, Garry Evan Williams, is deceased.

Private arrangements are by Phelps Funeral & Cremation Service,
Winchester.

Tribute Wall

TS

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Johnny & Ginny during this difficult time.

*Your friends,
Trevor & Stacey Strosnider*

Trevor & Stacey Strosnider - October 18, 2018 at 07:29 PM

VP

“ Donna was a delight and a joy to have as a student. My life is better for having known her. Vicki Pitcock

Vicki Pitcock - October 18, 2018 at 11:42 AM

LI

“ I loved Donna very much, such a good soul. My babies and I are sending warmth and love and peace to the entire clan.

Lizz - October 18, 2018 at 09:15 AM