“ Elizabeth and I were classmates at Bishop Dennis J. O'Connell High School in Arlington, VA. She was the amazing organizer for our 20th reunion in 1976, making the evening and Sunday picnic memorable events. We stayed in touch afterwards, and I always looked forward to Christmas cards and other notes from her. I am saddened to learn of her passing by way of another classmate. I have shared this sad news with our classmates. Prayers for her family and friends.

“ As first cousins Liz and I would call each other every few weeks just to talk, check up on each other's health concerns, chat about family, the news, and just keep the life connection ongoing. This was especially important during Covid because personal communication was otherwise difficult. I'm certainly going to miss having those calls which over the years covered the passing of family members, the birth of new family members, etc. - real life! May God bless and keep you close Liz.
