“ Clayton,

We are sorry to learn of Bibbus' death. I have happy memories of growing up in Middleburg with you both a part of my life. The MYF on Sunday nights! The special Christmas Eve services with all the other teens. Those were happy times. I hope your memories bring a smile as you think of your vibrant wife and all the days God gave you together. She enjoyed life and was a source of happiness.

Such deep sadness accompanies the death of a dear one. Our sympathy goes out to you, and to all your family. The great distance makes it impossible for us to appear at the services for Bibbus, but you will be in our thoughts and prayers today. May God's comfort be real and present in your moments of grief. The Lord Jesus is our hope and a sure place of peace, especially in a time such as this.

“ Clayton, Lisa and Todd,
A bright light has been taken from us, especially from her classmates from LCHS, Class of '60. She was such a joyful person, it is difficult to imagine her not being part of our lives. We hope the memories your family has shared over the years bring you comfort and peace at this sad and difficult time. With sincerest sympathy.
