“ I can't believe you're gone, Elmer, You went so quickly, we were hoping you be home soon. I will miss seeing you on Tuesday night when we played cards at Brenda's. You were always picking on me and I did the same to you. When I would call Brenda, I would tell her to tell you hi, and I would hear you in the background saying, "All right " 😞 RIP Elmer, will always remember you .

“ I worked with Elmer at SMP. He was something else. You always knew he was going to lift your day when you saw him coming in the office door. I don't think he ever forgot a joke. I am going to miss seeing his smiling face and his caring nature. I just know he told a joke as he walked thru those gates of heaven.. Prayers for his family and his many friends.

“ I'm so sorry for the loss of Elmer. I met Elmer while he was visiting his sister at a local nursing home.
He visited his sister quite often, especially on bingo days!
Elmer was always wanting to assist others during bingo days along with large food socials.
After sister transferred to another facility to be closer to family, Elmer would still stop by, just to say hi to staff & residents.
He will be sadly missed.
