“ Sissy...I love you and will miss you forever. While our hearts are broken and sad, we are glad you're no longer living the horrible existence you were thrown into. It was and always will be so unfair. Fly high with Roggie and Momma and Daddy now and shine and watch over those of us who loved you All the rest will take care of itself. Just as our God promised us and you. I love you. 💔💔💔💔💔
Love forever and always,

“ Sis, it has been years since we have spoken but I am truly sorry to hear of your passing. As in life you did in death what you always did you showed your brother the way to go home. For your three nieces Kimberly, Tonda and Valerie may you rest in peace with our Heavenly Father. Mary

“ This is a sad moment and I offer my condolences to the Wright family and the community she enriched through her life. I first had the pleasure of meeting Wendy and the family some two decades ago and her gentle warmth and sparkling personality left a fond memory. She later organized a fundraising event dedicated to cancer research, a testament to her selfless nature and principled approach to life and all it throws at us. Her legacy will live on through the family and especially her sons, who embody what was dear to her heart. Vernon, who continued the good fight to keep a family farm viable in these times and Justin who went on to blaze a trail in the pharmaceutical and healthcare industry. She will be proud, as will the many who gather to celebrate her life. Graham Jones, Boston MA
