“ *My heart is deeply saddened with the passing of my mom from this life to the next.However after all the pain and suffering she has endured this past year in particular it was truly an act of God's love for her to bring her home.My heart aches as I write this but I remind myself constantly,it's not about me,it's about the beautiful pain free body my mother now has and I truly believe in my heart of hearts she has just begun having the time of her life!
Her loving daughter,Carol*
