“ Glenda was a wonderful and loved sister . I was always trying to be like her . She was 9 years older and I was a shadow under her feet . We shared a bed most of our lives and she loved to get into bed and I was her feet and hand warmer . I had to go to bed way before her and the bed was nice a warm by then . I didn't mind because She was my idle growing up . I know she is in heaven and is dancing with Jesus.
