“ From the Draper & Gardner families we send our love & condolences to your family. We grew up across the road from Lee. Our brother David Draper was good friends with Lee & Joe. The guys hunted together & did "rascal" things together. There were 13 of us and we spent many hours playing football, baseball, hide & seek, etc Lee added to our lives tremendously growing up and we are the better for knowing him. We are so proud of the person & the family man he became. God bless you!

“ Betty, Jamie and Brian, we are so sorry for your loss. Mom wishes she could be their but she has surgery scheduled for Monday. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. If you need anything at all please just call. Lee was a great man. I still remember him washing his truck out in the rain while dad stood on our porch just laughing at him and shaking his head. Great memories of our families together.
