“ Alexis, I am so very sorry for your loss. I have some really great memories of your Dad. Growing up on Superior Ave., just around the corner, it was hard to not know your Dad. He was always at the center of the fun. I remember him going Christmas caroling with the church and my favorite memory is of sledding behind the VW. We had the best times!! Such wonderful memories. He and Dad are probably having a conversation just about now. My thoughts are with you and my heart breaks for you as I know what you are feeling.

“ It is hard for me to imagine life without Bucky living next door to me. He meant so much to me and my family. There was nothing Bucky wouldn't do to help me. He loved to chat and had many stories to share. One thing we shared was my Maltese dog Pudge whom Bucky quickly renamed "Killer"....all seven pounds of him. I look over at his house and my heart hurts knowing I won't see him sitting out in the yard. I miss you terribly Bucky but we will meet again. Until then, rest with the angels and God.

The Fuller, Morris and Dixon "get-to-gethers" were always memorable when I was growing up. Mr. Fuller, you will be surely missed by family and many friends whose lives you have touched. But as a good and faithful servant you are now in the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, where we will spend time again together.

Fond memories,

Chris Dixon
