“ Izzy was a special young man, with kind eyes and a warm smile. He would reach out and take my hand, hold it, shake it, and shake it some more. lol. You could feel the love. He was a gentle giant, and will be missed by so many here at NREP. RIP Izzy. Peace, strength, and comfort to his friends and loved ones.

“ I am so grateful I had the chance to work with Izzy during music the last few years. During my last few days at NREP he made me smile and played beautiful music on the bells. He loved to dance and play music. His laugh was so pure and made my worst days so much better. Lord knows how much he is missed.
