

James Vernon Hutton Jr.

March 11, 1927 - May 30, 2019

James V. Hutton, Jr. age 92 of Frederick County died May 30, 2019. Born March 11, 1927 at "Snow Hill Farm," Frederick County, Virginia, he was the son of James Vernon and Ada McCormick Hutton, Sr.

Mr. Hutton was a retired educator, a graduate of Stonewall High School at Clear Brook and the University of Virginia as undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate in Education, Virginia Studies, and Counseling.

An avid local and state history enthusiast, he authored numerous books and articles related to the history of the area, donating proceeds to various organizations.

He was a life member of the University of Virginia Alumni Association, Thomas Jefferson Society, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Old Stone Church Memorial Association, and the Virginia Historical Society.

Mr. Hutton served in the U.S. Navy in the Pacific during World War II.

He is survived by his wife, the former Juanita Tederick; two daughters, Gaye Dawn and Lara; three sons, James Vernon III, William Todd, and John Tederick; and seven grandchildren.

Services and interment will be private. The deceased requested no floral tributes or memorials.

Tribute Wall

CD

“ Mr Hutton was my sixth grade teacher. He served as a roll model aside from being one of the best educators I ever encountered. An outstanding citizen, remarkable educator and respected historian. Few contribute as much to society as he did. Thank you. Chuck Duvall

Chuck Duvall - June 02, 2019 at 01:02 PM

MW

Mr Hutton was my seventh grade teacher at Gainesboro Elementary. He was such a nice man and a wonderful teacher. Later when I went to work for Frederick County Schools and he worked at the school Board Office, I would see him often when he popped into Frederick County Middle, where I worked as the bookkeeper. He was always so nice and a true gentleman. Thank you Mr Hutton. I will always remember you. Mary Ellen Wehn

Mary Ellen Wehn - June 03, 2019 at 02:09 PM