“ Jean was a sweet and caring lady that gave many hours and kindnesses to the special needs folks at Northwestern Workshop (now NW Works). She and her husband Bob spent many hours making sure that there were parties, bingo, and dances that the clients at Northwestern Workshop looked forward to and enjoyed. They also furnished rides and even took folks to various camps, both day and overnight. My daughter, Lisa, along with many others, was on the receiving end of many of these fun times and outings and we have fond memories of those times. Thank you Jean (and Bob) for what you did to brighten the lives of these folks.
Rest in peace.
Fondly remembered by Lisa & Ann Copeland
