After many years as a cherished friend, JoAnn's life has come to an end. She will be heartachingly missed by you and me, But we are joyous that she is now pain free.

JoAnn touched the lives of strangers and friends with her kind words of compassion, and love without end.

She had many struggles that she faced without fear, For she knew that the Lord Jesus was always near.

She faced her last battle with courage and grace, For she knew she'd be seeing our Lord Jesus' face.

Her memory we'll cherish and our hearts now sing, For we know she's in heaven wearing bright angel's wings. (JMC)

“ Jo was the best sister anyone could be blessed with.... she was always supportive, caring, funny, loved life, was a friend to all and inspired many with her positive attitude through out the pain that she endured every day. I will miss her every day, but I know she is in a better place and without any more pain. I love you sister, you are with me every day.
