“ I remember John as such a nice person. We were at Middletown Elementary in the good ole days when we had the huge sliding board fire escape and the cafeteria in a separate building. Mrs Emma Andrews made the best rolls and all of her food was fantastic. She had only one helper, Mrs. Jones who lived across from the school. She would frown if she saw you throwing away any food. Those were great times to be young.
We saw John around town and he was his usual friendly self. May God welcome him into the kingdom. May his loved ones be comforted.
