“ I only knew Johnny for a short while but thank the Lord for that time. He always had a kind word and a prayer for my family and I. I will surely miss this times in his garage when he would meet with me. The Lord has a gained a wonderful angle and the world has lost a powerful prayer warrior. Thank you Lord for men like Johnny.

“ Im so happy I had all those years with Uncle Johnny while living on the deButts farm in Waterford. His brother Jack and wife Doris were like parents to me. Uncle Johnny would come over all the time. Those were the best years of my life. I thank you Uncle Johnny for being a part of them! You will always be missed and truly loved.
