

John Wesley "Wes" Laudermilk

January 12, 2025

John Wesley "Wes" Laudermilk, 63, of Stephen's City died Sunday, January 12, 2025.

He was born in Waynesboro the son of Reverend Rogers and Katherine B. Laudermilk. He was married to Kathy Laudermilk for 15 years. Wes was a member of Little Mountain Church. Wes was a proud firefighter and medic at several counties in Virginia, most notably Gainesboro, Middletown, and Clarke Counties. He worked for 35 years at Winchester Medical Center, most recently as the EMS communications operator. Wes loved amateur radios, music, and playing the guitar. In addition to his wife and mother, Wes is survived by his daughter, Elizabeth Laudermilk of Richmond. A service will be held on Saturday at 2:30pm at Phelps Funeral Chapel officiated by Pastors Philip Brumback and BJ Taylor. Friends will be received from 1-2:30 in the funeral home. A meal will be held for friends and family at Gainesboro fire department directly following the service.

“ Wes was one of the nicest guys I ever met. He was a medic in Clarke County, at John H. Enders Fire Co. where I met him and went on many ambulance calls with him. Always willing to help. He was great to be around! My thoughts and prayers are with his family.
