“ I am so sorry for your loss, He was such a wonderful man. He would stay at the store at night by Dinosaur Land whenever I closed he would say that more people around showed I wasnt alone and less likely to be robbed. I am so sorry for your loss really He was a wonderful man.

“ Jeff, Scott, and Helen,
My deepest heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your Dad and close friend. John and I were good friends and he came to Pennsylvania to visit me. John had his Airboat built here in Millersburg. He always enjoyed the 4th of July fireworks here on The Susquehanna River. I will never forget how he made the trip to visit me in the hospital after my serious auto accident. John was a good man and I will never forget my happy memories of him. Helen, you were his angel on earth and you enriched his life till the end. I fully trust that John is with The Lord now, and he is at peace. God bless you.
