“ My father Julian (Buzzy) Malachi was the best dad you could ever have growing up. He knew everything he taught me and my brother Jay how to fish. He took us deer hunting, camping, and gave me the best cooking lessons that I still follow Til this day. My dad kept me smiling and laughing with his jokes, stories and songs. He was and will forever be in my heart and thoughts. I love you Buz rest in power and peace.

“ Whenever I was in New Jersey Buzzy always made me feel safe. An encouraging word of two he was very nice. I remember him always offering me a cup of coffee. He kept a hot pot of coffee on the counter. You will be missed.

“ Uncle Buzzy, as a child I remembered you as a giant. In a family of small Puerto Ricans, I always was in awe of your height. Jenny was always taller than me growing up and I told her it was your genes not the Puerto Rican side. lol I know it was hard those last few years of your life but you never ceased to bring joy to those around you. I'm so grateful I got to see you two years ago on a spontaneous trip down from upstate New York. Because of insane traffic, my GPS detoured us through West Virginia and Winchester! Thank you for your service in protecting our country. May you rest in peace.

“ I have so many amazing memories of uncle Buzzy, he had this way of making you feel loved the minute you were in his presence. My most treasured memory will be when he met the twins and they asked why are you whispering and he said cause I'm Batman. They tell that story over and over and I will never be tired of hearing it. May he rest in peace and I send my most sincere condolences and prayers to Aunt mony and all of their children and grandchildren. 💕
