“ My heart hurts...my Little Buddy. I'll always remember our office chats: laughter and sorrows, smiles and a hug. Peaking around doors to scare each other. Laughing over jokes and singing country songs. I'll never listen to country music again without thinking of you. I'll never turn a corner in this hospital again without thinking of your smile. I still hear your voice up here. We all do. We always will. I hope your soul has found peace. Be free. Come visit me in my dreams. xo
