

Kimberly Diane Beauchamp

September 26, 1964 - October 21, 2018

Kimberly Diane Beauchamp, born September 26, 1964 in Fairfax, VA passed away in her Stafford County home on October 21, 2018.

Kimberly was a lover of all animals, especially her dog, Betty BoDean who passed the following day. She loved the farm life and raising her fancy chickens and sharing their eggs with neighbors. Kimberly was a kind-hearted person who would help anyone, even if she had nothing.

Kimberly was a 1983 graduate of James Wood High School. After school she moved to the Outer Banks in North Carolina to pursue her passion of cooking. She enjoyed her time at the beach working in restaurants, most notably Kelly's on the Outer Banks as a Chef and catering on the beach. She moved back to Virginia a few years ago to be closer to family.

Kimberly is survived by her mother, Sally Burton Beauchamp of Winchester, her brother Kenneth Beauchamp of Winchester, and her sisters Pamela Seitz of Strasburg, VA, Kathleen Horton of Paw Paw, WV and Brenda Miller (husband Tommy) of Edinburg, VA. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews who loved their Auntie Kim dearly.

She is preceded in death by her father, Carroll Beauchamp, III and her long time partner, Yoda (Harry) Dean of Wanchese, NC.

Family and friends will be received at Phelps Funeral & Cremation Services, 311 Hope Dr, Winchester, VA 22601 on Monday, October 29th from 6-8 p.m. Her ashes will be taken to the Outer Banks at a later time along with Betty BoDean's.
