

Lorrene Amelia Sturms

December 18, 1928 - March 21, 2017

Lorrene Amelia Sturms, 88, of Stephenson, VA died Tuesday, February 21, 2017, at Winchester Medical Center.

She was born December 18, 1928 in Pierce, WV the daughter of Dewey and Della Allen Lansberry.

She accepted Jesus as her Savior at a young age and faithfully attended church. She was an active member of New Covenant Christian Church and enjoyed both gospel music and frequenting gospel concerts. She developed a knack for making homemade candy and would travel to Pennsylvania to purchase the chocolate to make delicious treats. Traveling was always welcomed, as she and her late husband James did quite a bit. She enjoyed gardening and spending time with her pets, Micky and Princess.

She is survived by her sons, David Elyard of Charleston, WV and John Elyard and his wife Karen of Winchester, VA; her sisters, Barbara "Bobbi" Addair of Warren, Ohio and Sharon Idleman and her husband Larry of Keyser, WV; three grandsons, Chris Elyard of Charleston, WV, Kevin Elyard in the Navy, stationed in Hawaii and John Elyard II of Falling Waters, WV and a host of nieces and nephews.

Her brother, Dewey "Eddie" Lansberry and a sister, Rebecca Helmick are deceased.

A funeral service will be held Saturday, April 1, 2017, 11:00a.m. at New Covenant Christian Church, 165 Miracle Way, Winchester, VA with Pastor Steve Wymer officiating.

“ Though I know that this is a difficult time for you, my hope is that you will be comforted from God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21: 3,4 gives hope of a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning. Under Jesus' kingdom rule we have this and much more to look forward to. Please accept my deepest condolences.
