

Lottie James

August 24, 1928 - March 26, 2016

Lottie James, 87, of Strasburg was called home Saturday, March 26, 2016 at her residence.

She was born August 24, 1928 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania the daughter of John and Hattie Payne Williams.

Lottie was the second oldest sibling out of five children.

Her family moved to Stamford, CT when she was still young and she spent most of her life there.

She was married to Jesse James and they had one daughter Jennifer James.

She enjoyed playing cards, eating and having a good time. Anyone who knew Lottie, will remember her playing cards and talking with that cigarette hanging from her lips with its ash a mile long. Lottie was a caring woman and loved everyone.

She is survived by her grandchildren, Daquan May of Martinsburg, WV, Zarius James of Albuquerque, NM and LaKeya James of Indian Head, MD; Two great-grandchildren, Avery Rose of Albuquerque, NM and Jaszmine Dontrice James of Indian Head, MD and a son-in-law Thurman May.

Her parents, husband, daughter, a grandson, Keonta James and all of her siblings John, Aurlia, Daniel, and Rosie preceded her in death.

Funeral Services will be held 2:00 P.M. Sunday, April 3rd in the Phelps Funeral Chapel. 311 Hope Drive, Winchester, VA with Pastor Patricia Price officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Please knows that God himself promises to rid this earth of all death, sickness, and sorrow. Rev. 21:3-4. The resurrection hope is real where we will see our dead loved ones again right here on this earth. John 5:28,29. Matt the God of all comfort give you the strength you need endure.

Condolences - April 02, 2016 at 11:46 AM