“ I miss you so much grandpa. I can't believe it's been almost six months. I miss you and love you. Christmas was not the same this year. I miss texting and talking to you almost daily. You're truly one of my best friends. I was able to print out some old photos of us and I've been able to frame those so I can see you every day. I love you. Thank you for being my guardian angel. You're one of the best.
