“ Dear Family of "Little Mary" - She was the best loved, most dedicated, always positive, hard working volunteer SEARCH has ever had at it's Thrift Shop in Mt. Jackson. Through both of her bouts with Cancer, and loving care of her husband, Mary was always upbeat and willing to do what was needed. She was our very own Energizer Bunny! With Mary's deep faith, I know she is at peace with our Lord. Knowing that, it is difficult to be sad, but we will miss her! Thank you for sharing your mother/ sister/ grandmother with the SEARCH family for so many years. Blessings and peace to you all!

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mary Ellen. She was a wonderful lady in her faith and as a mother and grandmother, and a loving wife. First met her in 1977 and remember her giving me advice when I needed it. I will never forget her and I send my love to the family.
