

Monford Mary Cross Loar

January 12, 1928 - May 14, 2024

Monford Mary Cross Loar, 96, of Winchester died Tuesday, May 14, 2024 in her residence.

She was born January 12, 1928 in Morgansville, WV the daughter of William Fletcher and Verna Bunner Cross.

She was married to Leslie J. Loar, Jr., for 42 years.

She attended Wesley Church in Winchester, VA.

She was a seamstress and loved sewing, gardening, and flowers.

She is survived by her daughters, Cathy L. Sciegaj and her husband, Robert and

Brenda K. Loar, all of Winchester, VA; a daughter-in-law, Kathy Loar of Willard, OH; three grandsons, Danny Loar and his wife, Shelley of Cleveland, OH, Ryan Loar and his wife, Maggie of Dayton, OH, and Joe Loar and his wife Tori, also of Cleveland; five great-grandchildren, Trevor, Clayton, Grant, Reagan and Mikaela Loar.

Her husband, sons Stephen and William Loar and all thirteen siblings preceded her in death.

A private graveside service will be in Woodsdale Memorial Park in Grafton, WV at a later date.

Memorials may be made to Blue Ridge Hospice at 333 W. Cork Street
Winchester, VA 22601; or Wesley Church at 527 Van Fossen Street,
Winchester, VA
22601.

Tribute Wall

IN

“ Sorry for your loss. Ismet Nuri

Ismet Nuri - June 09, 2024 at 12:56 AM

DB

“ Donella Barberio lit a candle in memory of Monford Loar

Donella Barberio - May 21, 2024 at 09:40 AM

PH

“ Monford was dear friend of my Mother, B. Josephine Bucklew, and I am so very sorry for her passing. My deepest condolences to her family. Peggy B. Hodgson

Peggy Hodgson - May 17, 2024 at 09:52 AM