

Nancy Jean Burns

March 8, 1934 - February 19, 2014

Nancy Jean Burns, 79, of Winchester died on February 19, 2014 at Winchester Medical Center.

Nancy was born on March 8, 1934 in Johnstown, PA the daughter of Eugene McGuire and Virginia Ribblett McGuire.

In her youth she enjoyed roller skating and cultivated a love of Neil Diamond which she retained her entire life. She worked for Fairfax County schools with mentally and physically disabled children.

She was also a devoted mother and grandmother.

She is survived by a son, Danny Burns of Covington, GA and a daughter, Sandy Walther and her husband John of Winchester; four grandchildren, Stefanie and Katie

Burns, Eric Wortman, and Danielle Walther.

A daughter, Barbara Cockrill, a daughter-in-law, Deborah Burns, a brother, Bob McGuire, and a sister, Judy Honeywell are all deceased.

Friends will be received on Saturday, February 22, from 4:00-6:00 p.m. in Phelps Funeral Chapel 311 Hope Drive, Winchester.

www.phelpsfunerals.com

Tribute Wall

MR

“ What an amazing kind lady, faithful, loyal, and just decent. She will be missed, and what is so inspiring about her, was her devotion to those special needs kids, long before so many others "got it" that they deserved love, equality, and care. She no doubt helped countless parents and children, and I'm thankful to her for that. Peace be with you all, and God bless Nancy.

---

Mike Ross - February 22, 2014 at 07:23 PM

EW

“ Grandma you where a kind and considerate woman whos life has touched all our hearts.Everyone who had the pleasure of knowing you including me and my family will greatly miss you.We all love you and always will.

---

Eric Wortman - February 21, 2014 at 05:53 PM