

Pamela Joy Brown

January 4, 1967 - June 27, 2019

Pamela Joy Brown, 52, of Winchester passed in peace and earned her wings Thursday, June 27, 2019 in her residence after a long battle with COPD and emphysema.

She was born January 4, 1967 in Fredericksburg the daughter of Raymond Brown Sr. and Brenda Alexander.

Pamela was a kind loving soul who always gave more than she had to others. " In a field filled with roses, she was a wildflower."

She is survived by her step-father, Melvin Alexander, her constant companion, Marvin L. Shingleton; her treasured daughters, Angela Cooper and her husband, Michael, and Ashley Vanegas and her wife Christina, all of Winchester; stepson, William Shingleton; six siblings, David Calvert, Raymond Brown and his wife, Preeti, Goldie Brown, Benjamin, Melvin, and Nicholi Alexander; grandchildren, Vanessa, Keyona, Kevontae, Mia; step-grandchildren Airianah, and William Jr.; multiple nieces and nephews and a large extended family.

Her parents preceded her in death.

She will be remembered with love by so many friends including her ex-husband Jose Vanegas.

A visitation will be Tuesday 3-5:00 p.m. in Phelps Funeral Chapel 311 Hope Drive, Winchester.

"I am with you and will watch over you, wherever you go...I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised" -Genesis 28:15
