“ Pam was the most genuine person I've ever known. She was my best friend & my lifeline. We talked every day for 3 years. We both couldn't drive & were home by ourselves most of the time & we kept each other company. We both were very fortunate that our families helped us. I miss her so much & I find myself saying I've got to call Pam & tell her this but.. I can't anymore. Sending prayers, love & hugs to Pam's family. Love you all..❤️

“ Pam and I reconnected 10 yrs ago at family reunion. we talked about granddaddy and my uncle Jake. it breaks my heart that we didn't get to grow up together. and she passed away at the hospital right around the corner from me. i hope that ray and girls and I can get to know each other.

“ Kendra brought Pam to my place of work at the time to introduce me. Apparently Kendra told her mom that I was 21 not 28. Wish I would have known I might have shaved that day and not look like I was over 30:) Pam was the best mother-in-law one could have. Smart, motivated, and ambitious are just a few words that describe the Pam I knew. I will see her one day again and I look forward to hearing her "Arriba" call again:) RIP

“ I knew pam from her husband Ray. Him and I went to school together. They both are best friends of my brother John H.Sile..and Peggy his wife.Pam,and I had our Christian Fellowship every day on Facebook. I really miss that too! Her post every morning was a real blessing and always joyful. The one thing I'm most thankful for.. is that I know, we will meet on that beautiful shore. She truly made it known ..that she loved Jesus Christ ...and was a Born Again Believer. Hallelujah!!👏👏❤️🙏🙏👑 “Love” the Gobeli family,

“ Pam took me under her wing when I started at Aylor. I was new to county schools and she made my experience go much smoother. Later in life Pam and I reconnected with our husbands Ray and Donnie. We have very good memories with them.

“ Pam was much more than a friend , she was like a sister to me. I will always remember spending Apple Blossom with her & Ray and all the fun times we had. I will forever miss our talks and just knowing that each other was there. God has called you home and you are flying high. "I love you girl" as you would say, You will always be special to me.
