“ The most vivid memory of my aunt Patricia is when I was seven or eight, she was babysitting my brother and I and my mother and father had gone to the Kentucky Derby. Ron was alive then and they took my brother and I to a monster movie theater where the old Godzilla was shown, I enjoyed that so much that I even watched those movies today. That is one of my most fond memories, she would be dearly missed. I only know my aunt to be a loving, happy, courteous person, there was no other way about her. Miss you.
