“ Heaven will never be the same. While we are weeping, the Angels are rejoicing. Peg just made us feel good--a perfect example of "I may not remember what she said, but I remember how she made me feel." She had that joie de vivre. God speed, Peg. You made the world a better place.

“ Peg was the hub of the wheel at Robinson and we all depended on her for so much. She had the ability to be soft or tough quickly- whatever was needed. I hadn't seen her since I retired in '92 but evidently she continued to be fun, creative, and achieved more of her goals. My condolences to her family.

“ We know Peg to be a beautiful women who loved her family and everyone she touched. When we first met her, we were received warmly by her and her husband Paul at Dennis and Sherry's wedding. We were blessed by the moments that we had with her and look forward to the next time we meet again. We know her family will miss her but her Spirit remains present in them. God Bless her and all of the Magtutu family.

“ I am one of Peg's friends from Lake Holiday and have known her for 20 years. We enjoyed coffees, lunches celebrating birthdays and in general having an awesome time with a great group of friends. Paul was part of the group too however husbands were not as involved. My deepest sympathy to Paul and the family she will be sorely missed. I have lots of photographs of years gone by if you would like them.

Peg was a warm and beautiful woman!

“ Peg was my dearest friend for several years, while I lived next door to her. We had MANY fun adventures!!! Delivering flowers and arranging them in banks & businesses in the Va., DC areas, doing gardening, shopping, "lunching" sharing life's ups and downs, and she was like my little sister. Our last lunch was a 4 hour visit, catching up on life, and sharing memories, and I loved her dearly. Her zest for life was unwavering!!

Knowing her was special, being her friend was very very special. Tho we ended up living many miles apart, our friendship never cooled. I am soooo glad she was my friend!!
