

Phyllis Ann Wisecarver

September 17, 1935 - May 14, 2016

Phyllis Ann Wisecarver, 81, of Winchester, VA died Saturday, May 14, 2016 at Winchester Medical Center.

She was born January 17, 1935 in Winchester, VA the daughter of William Earnest and Pauline Altha Poole Pitcock. Her parents preceded her in death. Her husband, Lester Rollins Wisecarver, as well as her sister Margaret Dehaven and her husband Marshal Dehaven have also passed on before her.

She is survived by her sister, Judith Miller and her husband James Miller of Winchester VA, her son, Brian Wisecarver and his wife Tina of Winchester, VA; four grandchildren, Tiffany Lantz of Martinsburg, WV, Marcus Wisecarver and his wife Carrie of Star Tannery, VA, Lara Wisecarver and her fiance David Miller of Lebanon, PA, and Brooke Wisecarver of Waynesboro, VA; and six great-grandchildren.

She was a lover of animals and enjoyed listening to a variety of music as well as watching the marching bands in the parade. She became a big fan of the television show, Blue Bloods; but more than anything, she valued and looked forward to the traditional Sunday dinners at her parents' house, surrounded by her family.

A funeral service will be held Thursday, May 26, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. in the Phelps Funeral Chapel 311 Hope Drive, Winchester with Pastor Kent Woodward officiating.

Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, 325 South Holliday Street, Strasburg.

There will be a Pot Luck dinner following services at Brian Wisecarver's residence in Winchester.

“ Grandma,
We love you and are happy that you are no longer In pain. Really missing you here but that's selfish of me. Give Grandpa, Uncle Marshall and Aunt Margaret and many more loved ones our love. Would give anything to hear you say sweetly and then tell me that you shouldn't. Love you all!!
