“ My sincerest condolences to you. So sorry to hear of the passing of Quentin I will keep you in my prayers.

I was shocked to hear of the death of your son, nephew, cousin, father and friend. I can't even imagine how the family is feeling, but the shock is still in the air. It provides a timely reminder that regardless of age we never know if we will wake to see tomorrow. It's hard to imagine him a young man now. He was always so wild and full of life when he was around. I'm sure that enthusiasm stayed with him into adulthood and made him into a wonderful person that everyone loved.

Please accept my deepest sympathies as you grieve your loss. Our prayers are with you during this time.
