“ I still saw and treasure a few glimpses of that smile in the last couple months. And his sense of humor. A couple of times after I had asked (repeatedly) if he wanted something to eat or drink or needed more pain meds, he said "don't you have something to do or need to go to work?" Ok I got the hint. I wanted to grow old (er)with him, but it was not to be. I am honored I was able to care for him., Joyce

“ Tio Ramon had the biggest smile and the best laugh. He was kind and gentle. He loved a simple life with an equally kind and gentle woman.
