“ I've been a frequent guest of the George Washington Hotel while Renne was on it's staff. She was one of the most wonderful people I've ever had the pleasure of meeting. Her warm smiles and affable nature were so much appreciated. Traveling for work isn't all it's cracked up to be and it can be very lonely. But, Renne and the staff at the George Washington made me feel like I was one of their family. I live in Wisconsin and enjoyed the Winchester area so much that I brought my family along for work and vacations. They too felt as if Renne was one of our family. I have to say that my life was really touched by Renne's kindness and I'm very sorry for everyone's loss.

“ I will surely miss seeing Renne’s smiling face and hearing her sweet greetings of “Hey Rosina, how you doin’ baby?”, when we passed each other on our way to work. I loved Renne and her spirit. Such a gentle heart and spirit in the midst of all the feistiness. My heart is saddened, yet I celebrate her life and thank God that she is no longer suffering. You will be missed my sweet friend❤�
