“ Russell , I miss your sweet laugh and your kind loving spirit. At 8 PM I think time to call my HunnyBunny, but... I hope someone in Heaven is telling you: SIT DOWN BOY! You have been my best friend for 20 years and I hope you save me a spot at the door so we can again say, Welcome and come on in! I love you always!

Russell, we will miss your sense of humor and sweet smile at Church, Prime Timers, and the Senior Luncheons. You and Faye are always a welcome addition to any gathering. As a greeter at church, you made everyone feel welcome.

We are all looking forward to a celebratory reunion with our Lord and we know you will be the one with the biggest smile on the "Welcome Home" Team!!!
