

Samuel Lee Wilfong

November 16, 1917 - December 16, 2019

Samuel Lee Wilfong, aka Charlie Brown, our beloved Pop Pop went to be with the Lord on December 16, 2019.

A celebration of life service will be held at Church of Christ at Mountain View in Winchester on January 4th at 3 pm. Service will be followed by food and fellowship for friends and family at his home, where he lived with Bridget and Johnny Nicholson. Born on November 16, 1917, Sammy always desired to live passed 100 years of age. He did just that - with style too, singing and loving life! Sammy was always a joyful man who loved to sing and joke every chance he could. He loved being around family and friends. He enjoyed going bowling, to church, and for strolls in the park to see the ducks. Sammy, a Christian man, was a faithful member of the Church of Christ at Mountain View. Sammy, a WWII Veteran, served, with great patriot pride, in the United States Army. He loved his country very much. As a young man, Sammy led his hometown church choir and worked as a farmhand most of his life. He loved to dance and sing any chance he could and he always, in his lighthearted way, said he knew more songs than anybody! Everyone who knew Sammy loved him - it was impossible not. He left a mark of kindness and joy in the hearts of those he met.

He filled each day with songs and laughter, he will be missed so much.

He's singing with the angels now, healed for eternity by Gods heavenly touch.
