

Sandra Fay Marcy

February 4, 1956 - March 23, 2026

Sandra Fay Marcy passed away peacefully on Monday, March 23, 2026, at the age of 70 at Blue Ridge Inpatient Care Center.

She was born on February 4, 1956, in Hawkinsville, Georgia.

She was a proud 1974 graduate of Dodge County High School.

Throughout her life, she found joy in the simple and beautiful things like spending time at the beach, going on cruises, watching hummingbirds, and most of all, being with her family. Everyone adored her strong southern accent and her laugh was contagious.

She is preceded in death by her father, Willis Delacey Southerland; her stepfather, Thomas David Taylor; her grandparents, William Roy Butler and Lillie Lou Davis.

Fay is survived by her loving mother, Johnnie Ruth Butler Hall; her twin sister, Sheila Kay Ross and her husband Don; her brother, Donnie Delacey and his wife Mary Jo; and her sister, Paulette Bottasso and her husband Mark. She also leaves behind her children; Ashley Litaker and her spouse Crystal of Berkeley Springs, Robert Burdick of Winchester, Megan Shanholtz and her husband Jerry of Winchester, and grandchildren; Tyler, Parker, Landon, Maddy, Charlotte, and Olive.

Fay will be remembered for her love of family, her strength, and the warmth she brought to those around her. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

Services will be private

Tribute Wall

DP

“Fay was a funny and fun person! She would visit my house in Milan years ago with my brother. We always enjoyed talking and visiting! She had a great heart!”

---

Denise Giddens Parkerson Perez-Guerra - March 26 at 08:41 PM