“ I feel numb and a bit shaken. It was only about 10 minutes ago that I learned of this beautiful lady's passing. Although I didn't know her long, she touched my heart. I can still see her coming to the office looking like a teenager, radiant smile and spunky personality. I can still hear her words proclaiming that she was going to beat the cancer.

She talked of her two boys with such love. I remember her telling me that she was excited that one of her handsome treasures was about to get married. She talked fondly of her soulmate and his support in her life. Her smile was bright even though the journey she was faced with was one of uncertainty.

My prayer was that she would be healed and her sweet presence would remain here on earth to enjoy her lovely family. To one day enjoy Sweet Grandtreasure's.....but God called her home. She needed rest....her body was frailShe is now cancer and pain free..... She now smiles from Heaven..... She will forever be a guiding light to those she loved ...a sweet angel looking from Heaven.....Her Comfort and love Will live on in the etched memories she has placed in the hearts of all who loved her and all she loved.

Sharon, your testimony was amazing. You were a courageous lady! I am blessed to have met you! Angie Shirley (Dr. Duck's office)

While Sharon only lived in the Trilogy Community for such a short time. Whether gardening, kayaking, taking photographs, all of us knew who she was and she was always willing to talk and share. She will be truly missed. Our condolences upon your loss. Cyndi and George Stone

“ In memory of Sharon
I am still trying to grasp the reality of Sharon’s passing. I just can’t comprehend how or why someone so full of life can be gone in the blink of an eye, in the prime of their life.
When Sharon walked into a room she brought joy and love. Her kindness and selfless acts of giving defined her best. Even though I only knew Sharon for 7 short years, she was the light of my life and gave me reasons to try to be a better man.
Even though we were not meant to be together forever, I will always cherish that time and I will never forget the great love Sharon bestowed on me and how deeply she touched my heart and soul. Her memory WILL shine on me forever. I can only imagine that God has bigger things for her to do in Heaven.
