“ Stacey and I were second cousins. Her late grandfather and my grandmother were siblings. We used to spend a lot of time together at our Granny's house - I just know she was waiting for Stacey with open arms and maybe a swat or two. (If you knew our Granny, you know what I'm talking about.) I'll remember her as that teenager that I looked up to that almost broke my Barbie Jeep and who would never turn down an opportunity to try and sneak into Raymond's building with me. You'll be missed but remembered with so much love.
